

JOSEP BOSCH (AD PARTS), THE MOST IMPORTANT PROFESSIONAL IN DISTRIBUTION

On 19 September, AUTOPOS, one of the most prestigious Spanish magazines in the sector, awarded the Prize of « Most important Professional in Distribution » to the president of AD Parts (and Honorary President of AD International), Josep Bosch.

This event took place in the Goya Theatre in Madrid, in front of an audience of more than 400 people, including the 150 major OEMs who had voted in the preceding days.

Josep Bosch received the award from David Moneo, director of IFEMA MOTORTEC Automechanika Madrid and Miguel Ángel Prieto, editor in chief at Autopos.

The criteria for the distinction were honesty, professional quality, merits and success achieved.

In his speech of thanks, Josep Bosch took the opportunity to draw attention to the OEMs' duty to safeguard the balance of the market:

« ... Other actors are currently appearing on the market who are also vehicle manufacturers. If those of you who are in some way involved with the independent aftermarket fail to ensure the balance of this market, the balance of prices, if you fail to protect it, then we may all be in for a hard time. So defend our jobs and at the same time you will be helping us to preserve our companies. »

Among the 20 first prize winners were 6 representatives from the AD Parts Group.
